A November Song for Saints
(with apologies to Cool Hand Luke and Paul Newman)

I don't care if it rains or freezes
Long as I've got my plastic Jesus
Sitting on the dashboard of my car
Comes in colors pink and pleasant
Glow in the dark cause it's iridescent
Take it with you...when you travel far.

Get yourself a sweet Madonna
Dressed in rhinestones sitting on a
Pedestal of abalone shell
Going ninety I ain't scar-ied
Cause I've got the Virgin Mary
Assuring me that I won't go to hell.

Get yourself Ole Saint Joseph
Buried in the lawn he's gonna help us
Sell that house despite the market slide
Takin' care of Mary and Jesus
Dear Saint Joseph won't you please-just
Tell to us where do you find the time?

Today I spotted good Saint Francis
Standing in the garden with his hands-just
Holding a bowl from which the birds do drink.
Caring for the birds and the squirrels,
Cats, and dogs, and the bees as well
Saint Francis had no allergies I think.

The saints are more than figurines.
They're real they're in heaven and they just mean,
To pray for us and help us in our call.
Forsake sin and embrace heaven;
The Eucharist is our leaven.
Called to be saints in heaven one and all.

You might think this song is strange
But saints in the making lost is a shame
So don't forget that for which we're made.
Living lives more fully human
With Jesus and Mary in a Holy Communion
We hope to be numbered among the saints one day!

Peace!
Fr. Wilson

The Corner

"I have said these things to you so that My joy may be in you, and that your joy may be complete." (John 15:11)

The surest sign that God is alive in you is your joy. We are meant to share the joy of the Gospel with others, inviting them into its radiant light. And one of the best ways to do that is simply be being joyful ourselves.
